Notates sessions with an optional weekend stayover to create multiple-week sessions.

How much do the themes really matter?

Themes make each session extra fun, but your camper doesn't need to know the fandom (or even like it!) to have a great week.

All signature camp activities run every week — zipline, tubing, games, campfire, and more. Themes are just an added dose of joy and imagination.

Pick the dates that work best for you. Your camper will have a blast either way.
