Additional Information

List any extracurricular activities you participate in (clubs, sports, leadership, youth groups, etc.).

List any camper/CIT involvement along with number of years and name of camp.

- 1) Why do you want to serve as a CIT for Summer 2020?

- 2) What do you think you can bring to the CIT program?

- 3) What is one way CITs need to act differently than campers?

- 4) Which YMCA core value (respect, responsibility, caring, and honesty) do you value most? Why?

- 5) We strive to make Camp Immokalee feel like a home for our counselors, CITs, and staff. What's one idea you have to help people feel at home at camp?

Video Assignment

Please film yourself (using a phone is fine) answering the following questions and submit the video with this application. This will take the place of CIT interviews for 2020. A staff member may be in touch to follow up on your answers.

- 1) What's one idea you have to help bring campers in the cabin together into a close-knit group?
- 2) Imagine you have two campers in your cabin who are constantly arguing and who refuse to get along. What might you do in this scenario?
- 3) What do you find to be the most magical thing about Camp Immokalee? If you've never attended Camp Immokalee before, what are you looking forward to most about being a part of our Camp Immokalee family?

Please complete and submit this form, two letters of recommendation, and the required video to Allison East at aeast@fcymca.org by May 1, 2019. If you have any questions about this application or the CIT program, if you have issues submitting your video, or anything else, please email Allison East at the address above.
